

SINK SONG – J. A. LINDON

Scouring out the porridge pot,
Round and round and round!

Out with all the scarith and scooperly,
Lift the eely ooly drooperly,
Chase the glubbery slobbery glooperly,
Round and round and round!

Out with all the doleful ditherly,
Ladle out the slimy slitherly,
Hunt and catch the hitherly titherly,
Round and round and round!

Out with all the obbly gubbly,
On the stove it burns so bubbly,
Use the spoon and use it doubly
Round and round and round!
